EATING AND DRINKING AT URSA MAJOR!

Rob Borland, the owner and distiller of Ursa Major gave a group of members and volunteers a detailed tour of his in-house distillery on March 16, followed by an appetizer potluck with a chance to taste his locally sourced gin, vodka and rum. We learned about Rob and his love for the brewing process as well as the ins and outs of making the product. This is not really something you want to try at home unless, like Rob, you are a great chemist and an even greater mechanic.

Did you know that AAH Fairbanks has a Member Directory?

It is available only to members of AAH Fairbanks! (We do not share information about our members with anyone else.) As a default, your listing includes email, phone, and address, but you can change that, add more, or choose to not be listed at all.

Where do you find the Member Directory?

It is on the members-only part of our website aahfairbanks.org. Members are able to login with their usernames and passwords; then additional web pages are available to them: Member Directory, as well as Calendar and Service Providers. These pages are not available to other visitors to the website.

Why do we have a directory?

We hope to develop of sense of community among our members. After meeting someone at a social, you may want to contact them. Having member contact information (and maybe photos) available makes that easy.

Privacy?

The Member Directory cannot be seen by visitors to the public website, and what appears for each member is determined by the member. You can decide what information you want to include -- or can choose to not be listed at all. You can also include a photo or delete one that may be there.

How do you edit your listing?

1. Go to aahfairbanks.org; login as a member; find your name in the upper right.
2. Place the cursor on your name and choose Profile.
3. In the box Personal Info click on Member Directory.

Technical Problems?

If you have trouble logging in and/or need help editing your listing, Barbara Lando will be happy to assist you or do the editing for you. Just contact her at membership@aahfairbanks.org
